Introduction

The world is changing by the unbeatable pace, technology progresses, globalization is taking place and a man is stuck in that vicious cycle. In order to cope up with change man needs to learn constantly, otherwise he is doomed. The environment has changed drastically from the time of Revelation and Prophethood. As the consequence of the drastic change new questions arose in all the aspects of human life, no matter of lifestyle, being it's Islamic or otherwise. The Shariah rules have always been absolute and they are being harder and harder to apply and interpret for a layman.

One knows that any innovation in ibadah is considered bid'ah contrasting to transactions where the innovation is most welcome but permissibility is a must. Therefore, the controversies in the matter of transactions are those mostly present and discussed. One of the controversies this assignment will try to approach and look at is weather the owner of a certain store is allowed to purchase a good from his own business, whether it is considered a transaction, a contract of
